

The Oregon Model

2020-21

We want to empower you to nurture and maximize the strength of every child within your school. We have chosen to respond courageously to the investment and partnership with Loma Linda University to become a model conference in tenaciously pursuing the original purpose and blueprint for Adventist Education.

	← Continuum of Growth →
Christ-Centered Culture	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Loves all students and families well Sees students as worthy Assists with school-wide TAO opportunities for students to serve 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Loves all students and families well Establishes a culture of worthiness and belonging Works collaboratively for students to serve their church and community 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Loves all students and families well Builds worthiness, belonging, & purpose in every student Creates opportunities for students to serve their church and community
Positive Choice & Restorative Relationships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Demonstrates respect for all students Provides students some choice in the learning process Follows restorative relationship practices 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Promotes a respectful culture among all students Bases classroom on student choice Incorporates restorative relationships in all decisions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mentors respect and confidence in all students Initiates intentional cultural changes for student choice Implements school-wide restorative relationships
Maximizing Individual Potential	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Constructs learning products to sometimes incorporate the 4 Cs Implements at least one PBL experience Accommodates students with special needs Builds awareness of strength areas for each student 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Constructs learning products to incorporate the 4 Cs Implements at least two PBL units Uses UDL concepts to accommodate all learners Caters to the strengths of each student 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Constructs learning products to consistently incorporate the 4 Cs Consistently implements PBL units throughout the school year Structures class to optimize personalized learning Maximizes the potential leader in every student